

MP3 at K2010

MP3 will be at K 2010 for the first time, the first International exhibition of plastic and rubber that will take place in Duesseldorf, Germany starting from the 27th October until the 3rd November.

It is the most important event for the operators of the sector, to which this year we have chosen to participate in order to confirm our international attitude.

After 30 years of uninterrupted growth and investments in new technologies and products, ILPA-MP3 is focusing today to the global market with the aim of a further industrial and commercial development.

During the exhibition will be shown important news in the Dairy field, in PET and Sheets.

Our sales staff will be available to organise individual meetings.

Here following the exhibition's agenda with the presence list of our team:

- Garagnani Marcello (General Manager) from the 31st October to the 3rd November
